Sophie: Hi everyone, welcome to the violin club. I'm your teacher Sophie. Today, we'll learn about different types of violins.

Mike: Hey Sophie, will you also teach us how to play the violin?

Sophie: Yes Mike, we'll learn both theory and practice. But first, let's check... Did you all bring your own violins?

Jane: Oops, I forgot my violin at home.

Sophie: It's okay Jane, you can borrow one from the music room.

Peter: Sophie, I don't know how to hold a violin properly. Can you show me?

Sophie: Sure Peter, put your left hand on the neck like this and take the bow in your right hand.

Alice: That sounds so cool, can I try it out now?

Sophie: Of course Alice!

Dear Mom,

This is my second week in Vancouver, Canada, I'm having a really good time here at the camp. Remember I told you it was cold and rainy on the phone the other day? (34) last week, it is sunny but cool this week, and it does not rain at all. We go swimming every day because (35). Some people even borrow boats and go sailing. As for food, we girls need to make breakfast and the boys prepare sandwiches in the evening. It's usually OK but not as good as at home. (36) In the evening, we usually sit by the fire and talk or sing. (37) With the music, sometimes we even have a dance party. We're leaving on Saturday after breakfast. The bus will take us directly to the airport! I will call you when I'm back in Taiwan.

Love,
Ting
