Dear Diana,
Richard and I plan to go to Tainan next weekend. We'll go bird watching. Do you know anything about the black-faced spoonbills? They have black faces, and their bills are just like spoons. They use their bills to catch fish. When they take a rest, they often stand on one leg. Isn't that very interesting?

Black-faced spoonbills often come to Tainan for warm weather in winter. It's not easy to see cute birds like them. We're going to meet at Taipei Train Station at 7:30 a.m. next Saturday. Do you want to join us? Keep in touch with me.

Your friend,

Emily
